

Clinics will be held in Axton, Virginia at Sandy River Equestrian Center. They will run from 9 AM to 4PM each day and include lunch at noon in the bunk house. The cost is $175 for each clinic, or $750 for all five clinics when you preregister and pay in advance. Clinic fees due in advance to receive the discount. To register please contact Sam Henley, sam@eqmtc.com or (540) 488-5416; or Vicky Williams, vicky@eqmtc.com or (434) 489-6414. Cash, Check, or Credit Card (5% processing fee) accepted.

Clinic 1 - January 12: Let's Get to the Core of It with Ann Mary Bettenson

Why Proper Saddle Fit is Important to Both Horse and Rider
Saddle Fitting • Fitness and Balance of the Rider

Clinic 2 - January 19 - 20: No Hoof, No Horse; Hoof Care for Dummies with David Tuggle

Day 1: Basic Anatomy and Function • Injuries and Problems
Proper Way to Pick Up a Hoof

Day 2: How to Properly Pull a Shoe • Basic Trimming and Shoeing
Corrective Trimming and Shoeing • Alternative Shoeing

Clinic 3 - January 26: Is My Horse Hangry? Equine Nutrition with Dr. Marty Adams

Feeds and Feeding • Interpreting a Feed Label
Digestive Anatomy • Developing Feed Programs
Supplements • Ration Wizard
Thank You to Our Lunch Sponsor, Cargill

Clinic 4 - February 2: Let's Get to the Body of It: Equine Anatomy and Lameness with Dr. Mark Wallace, Carolina Equine Hospital

Equine Anatomy and Physiology • Identifying Lameness
Identifying and Palpating Soft Tissue
Lameness Evaluation • Soft Tissue Injuries

Clinic 5 - February 23 - 24: Beyond the Braids with Sam Henley

Everything you need to know about show turnout, packing for you and your horse, managing your horse at a competition, stall set up, aftercare, and more.